

Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Calendar 2019 20

International Democracy Day – 13th September 2019 The children will compare and contrast democracy around the world.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To understand the importance of democracy• To understand how democracies work around the world• To understand the Britain’s democratic Parliamentary System and how it has shaped our history
Black History Month -1th-31st October 2019 Children will learn about key people from African origin and their contributions to the development and growth of civilisations from antiquity to present.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To understand about key people from African origin• To understand their contributions to the development and growth of civilisations
Harvest Festival – 18th October 2019 Our whole school will collect food for the Children’s home and local home for the elderly, and celebrate Harvest with parents and local community in a shared act of collective worship during the Year 5 Harvest Assembly.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To understand the importance of harvest• To understand how we can support those who are in need• To promote collaborative partnerships with the local community• To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them• To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning
Diwali – 5th November 2019 Our whole school will explore the celebration of Diwali through activities and assemblies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To reflect upon and understand the Hindu culture• To understand how Diwali is celebrated throughout the world• To encourage children to regard people of all faiths, races and cultures with respect and tolerance.• To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them• To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning

Armistice Day – 8th November 2019 The whole school will join in a collective act of worship commemorating those who lost their lives in the service of their country.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To help children understand the importance of commemoration • To help children reflect on their experiences • To develop an understanding of the impact of the actions of others
Anti-Bullying Week – ‘Change Starts With Us’ 11th -15th November 2019 Week long activities involving the whole school around tackling and dealing with Bullying.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To empower children and young people to make a noise about bullying – whether it is happening to them or to someone else, face to face or online; • To raise awareness of the impact of bullying on children's lives if they don't tell anyone it's happening – or if they are not given appropriate support – with a focus on the impact on mental health.
St Andrews Day -30th November 2019 Our school will explore the celebration of St Andrews day through activities and assemblies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the importance of St Andrews Day to the Scottish people. • Further tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling children to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them • To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning
Guru Nanak 2nd December 2019 Our whole school will explore the celebration of Guru Nanak through assemblies and activities in class.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the true nature of Guru Nanak within the Sikh faith • To understand how Guru Nanak is celebrated throughout the world • To encourage children to regard people of all faiths, races and cultures with respect and tolerance.
Advent/Christmas – 2nd – 18th December 2019 The whole school will take part in a range of activities and acts of collective worship. The choir will perform at the local church.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the true nature of Christmas within the Christian faith • To understand how Christmas is celebrated throughout the world

There will be a Christingle service at school. EYFS and KS1 will hold Nativity based assemblies for parents and the local community KS2 will perform Christmas carols for parents
World Religion Day 20th January 2020 The whole school will celebrate religions around the world through assemblies and activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect and understand a wide range of religions around the world • To develop tolerance for different faiths and beliefs • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them • Further tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling children to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures
Chinese New Year – 27th January 2020 Our whole school will explore the celebration of Chinese New Year, including traditional Chinese gifts and food, activities and workshops.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the importance of Chinese New Year to Chinese people • Further tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling children to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them • To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning
Safer Internet Day - 11th February 2020 Children will take part in activities that promote safer and more responsible use of online technology and mobile phones	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reinforce our e safety message so that children are empowered to make safe moral choices in their internet use • To learn that their actions can affect others •
St. Davids Day – 1st March 2020 Our whole school will explore the celebration of Wales, including traditional Welsh gifts, celebrations and food.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the importance of St Davids Day to the Welsh. • Further tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling children to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures
St. Patricks Day - 17th March 2020 Our whole school will explore the celebration of Irish, including traditional Irish gifts, celebrations and food.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the importance of St Patricks Day to the Irish.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Further tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling children to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them • To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning
Easter production – 30th & 31st March/ 1st April 2020 Years 3 and 4 perform to parents a version of the Easter Story. The whole school will also celebrate through cross curricular activities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the true nature of Easter within the Christian faith • To understand how Easter is celebrated throughout the world
Science Week – 23rd -27th March 2020 Whole School involvement throughout the week in science activities to inspire and create awe and wonder	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To participate in activities and develop their social skills. • The development of skills to enable children to participate fully in and contribute positively to life in modern Britain. • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them • To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning
St Georges Day – 23rd April 2020 Our whole school will explore the celebration of England, including traditional English gifts, celebrations and food. Whole school and workshops will take place.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To reflect upon and understand the importance of St Georges Day to the English • Further tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling children to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them • To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning

Healthy Eating Week 8th June 2020 Children will be participating in activities and sports days during this week,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To participate in and respond positively to artistic, musical , sporting and cultural opportunities • To understand the importance of a healthy lifestyle
Maths week 22nd June 2020 Maths lessons around money (finance, savings, spending) for this week and for other parts of the curriculum, linked to an enterprise project.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The development of skills to enable children to participate fully in and contribute positively to life in modern Britain. • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them • To develop their use of imagination and creativity in their learning
Spanish Day 6th July 2020 A day devoted to Spanish life.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Further tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling children to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures • To participate in activities and develop their social skills. • The development of skills to enable children to participate fully in and contribute positively to life in modern Britain. • To develop a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them